Plot Ranjan (Hiten Kumar) is a self-centered, stubborn and hot-headed person. His father (Bharat Mehta) and mother (Ritu Vora) are small-time shop owners in Sanpada, Gujarat. Ranjan's parents do not get along with each other. They don't let Ranjan attend a local school because he is overweight and fails most of his classes. He has a younger brother. He spends most of his time in local stores, cheating on the barter exchange or working on a local gang. Ranjan's parents are under pressure to open a shop but they fear people will notice their son's peculiar behavior. To make matters worse, Ranjan becomes infatuated with Rabi (Anandi Tripathi). Rabi is Ranjan's childhood sweetheart and is engaged to Alok. Alok is a rich and handsome guy who runs a restaurant. At home, Ranjan and his parents are going through a tough time. Ranjan's mother suffers from a chronic disease. His father doesn't get along with his son. Ranjan earns money by getting favors from a local goon. Ranjan's parents think that he has found a way to get his dream shop and that's why they have made this arrangement. Alok is happy when he hears about the wedding but he realizes soon that Ranjan has turned into a bad person. Alok promises to ruin Ranjan's life. Alok's friend makes Ranjan realize that he is in love with Rabi and if he doesn't do anything he will lose her. Alok's plan is put into motion and Ranjan is cheated by one of Alok's friends and gets into an accident. After a few weeks of being in a hospital, Ranjan's mother suffers a heart attack and dies. Ranjan comes home to find his father in a broken state. Unable to manage everything, Ranjan's father confides in Ranjan that he is very worried about Ranjan. He asks Ranjan to take his mother's place. Ranjan is confused. Ranjan's father tells him about his plan to make Ranjan a business man. Ranjan's father asks him to put his parents' store to rest and take over it. But Ranjan refuses to accept the responsibility of the business. He is shocked and angry with his father. Ranjan's father is about to call Alok for a reconciliation but Ranjan stops him. Alok is Ranjan
