NEW YORK (CBSNewYork) — The chief executive of an Oklahoma-based mortgage company was charged Wednesday with defrauding thousands of government-insured mortgage loans. Mark E. Glaze, 61, the CEO and chairman of Ameriquest Mortgage Company, was charged with one count of conspiracy to commit bank fraud and another count of bank fraud in federal court in Manhattan. He is accused of persuading employees at Ameriquest and other companies to turn over more than $1.5 million in fees that went to companies he controlled, including a company he created called “One Forest Bank” that promised bank loans to the private equity firm that owns Ameriquest. Prosecutors said Glaze submitted false applications for loans in the names of Ameriquest employees that falsely claimed the employees were the principals of the companies. Then he created and used One Forest Bank to pay the fees, prosecutors said. Investigators said Glaze used these companies to fraudulently create loans that were guaranteed by the U.S. government and, in many cases, were backed by Ameriquest’s bank accounts, which had little to no assets. “There is no justification for the kind of conduct that these defendants engaged in,” U.S. Attorney Preet Bharara said in a statement. “Glaze’s crimes and his brazen greed led to the complete loss of millions of dollars of mortgages guaranteed by the U.S. government,” Bharara said. “By contrast, Ameriquest is a company that was on top of its game, and is prospering today.” The U.S. Attorney’s Office in Manhattan said Ameriquest has agreed to pay $2.2 million in penalties and $6.8 million in consumer relief to the U.S. Treasury Department’s Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Federal Housing Finance Agency. In all, the companies and individuals allegedly defrauded the government by paying a fee to One Forest Bank, of which Glaze was the chairman, for a loan application, and were later never repaid, prosecutors said. In some cases, the mortgage payments never even reached the customer. As CBS 2's Jessica
