Let's say that Joe, our new, senior software developer, comes to work with us for the first time. You are probably interested in Joe's knowledge of the domain or at least about his talent and attitude. Therefore you have the chance to get to know him better and to learn about the team he lives with. You could start trying to assess the team dynamics with the tool already mentioned: the matrix. I suggest that it is not that useful to think about the founding members of the team as natural successors. I think it's a mistake to focus
