These are the best family vehicles of 2017 California considers internal combustion car ban Saudi Arabia finally allows women to drive Junkyard Gem: 1981 Chevrolet LUV Mikado pickup Dyson, famous for vacuum cleaners, will offer an electric car in 2020 What to expect when you visit a car dealer CHEVROLET PULLMAN EXPLORER GM's 700 horsepower, full-size luxury crossover SUV boasts a 2.2-liter turbocharged four-cylinder engine that pushes out 350 pounds-feet of torque and features a six-speed automatic transmission. Good-looking, well-built and spacious, the Explorers has a great ride in this big, comfortable shape, and the eight-way power-adjusted driver and passenger seats won't let you down when you're cruising the highway. Despite the decent interior sound quality, the Explorers has a bit of cabin noise for the entire body of the vehicle. The interior is solid and well built with a hint of premium leather and soft-touch plastics. The cabin feels spacious and the front seats have an abundance of adjustment. However, the lack of an auxiliary input jack is a major disappointment. The Explorers has a fuel-efficient turbocharged V-6 engine that produces 283 horsepower and 280 lb-ft of torque and is paired with a six-speed automatic transmission. It is smooth and quiet and is a solid performer in this class. GM has also included a high-tech option of its own -- Satellite Radio, which makes listening to your favorite radio station a piece of cake. The Explorers excels at accessing the engine and its trademark turbocharged power during steep uphill climbs. However, the turbo action isn't much fun in most cases. It may make the vehicle more enjoyable if you drive it in a city. When this vehicle comes in for an oil change, the Technicians will ask whether you need a major or minor tune-up. The best and least expensive option is a minor tune-up, which will cost $85.00. If you want to spend more on an option f30f4ceada
