St Mary's Church, All Saints St Mary's Church is in the village of All Saints, Leicestershire, England. It is an active Anglican parish church in the deanery of Hinckley and Bosworth, the archdeaconry of Leicester and the diocese of Leicester. The church, dedicated to Saint Mary, is recorded in the National Heritage List for England as a designated Grade I listed building. History The nave and aisles of the present church were built as a chapel of ease to the parish church of St Mary, Bosworth, between 1795 and 1824. This was the first chapel of ease to be built in the county of Leicestershire since the dissolution of the monasteries in the 16th century. Architecture The church is constructed in stone ashlar with stone dressings, a slate roof, and a west tower. The tower is supported by diagonal buttresses and includes a spire at the northeast corner. The three-stage tower contains a
