I am trying to create an if statement that will echo "true" or "false" based on the input given to it. I've been looking through google for hours and I can't figure out how to do this and where to put the statements so that I get the desired output. I am a newbie and the answer might be really simple but I can't figure it out. I am looking to use the output of the console as the output for my if statement. A: Something like: package main import ( "fmt" "os" ) func main() { buf := make([]byte, 10) io.ReadFull(os.Stdin, buf) fmt.Printf("%c", buf[:1] == 'T' ) } As a child, my parents fostered an active lifestyle. I grew up sailing, skiing, camping, hiking and kayaking, to name a few. I was naturally drawn to the outdoors and loved spending time with my mom and dad in the beautiful New Hampshire forests, and hiked my way through the White Mountains. I've always appreciated the beauty of these great outdoors and consider it one of the greatest blessings of my life. The great outdoors has contributed to the way I live my life today. It's time to share some of that love with others. That's why I created the RootsRated.com and started CampRoots. What do you mean by "camping" and "rafting?" For me, camping and rafting are two of my favorite ways to experience the great outdoors. To say it simply, camping is
