TitleTime displays the time in 24-hour time and time zone format. It also allows setting alarms. The use of the tool is similar to that of Windows Task Manager. To load or install the tool, drag and drop it into your taskbar. When using the tool, a small clock will appear on the top-left of the screen. The time and time zone displayed by TitleTime can be configured by right-clicking on it and selecting the appropriate option. The available options for the time, time zone and alarms are shown below. To open TitleTime, right-click on its icon in your taskbar and select the appropriate option. Misc: The sound options available can be accessed by pressing the keyboard shortcut CTRL-G. The clock will display the time and the user can select one of the available sounds. The images available can be accessed by pressing the keyboard shortcut CTRL-G. A gallery of images can be opened by selecting the first option. It can be configured by selecting another option. A separate window will open, showing the list of available images. A user can select one of the images from the list. The selected image will be displayed on the main window. Each time, the alarm can be configured by selecting one of the options from the right-click menu. The alarm will be set and shown on the main window. If the alarm is already set, the window will close. It will reappear in the same state after a few seconds. Update: In order to add TitleTime to the Windows 10 taskbar, right-click on the taskbar icon, and select 'Add' to install it. In order to add the tool to the Windows 7 taskbar, right-click on the taskbar icon, and select 'Pin'. The tool can be removed by selecting 'Remove' from the right-click menu of the taskbar icon. System Requirements For TitleTime:

Watch the Trailer! The purpose of doing this is to have some realistic experiences with the game, and to have it on as many computers as we can. We want to get some statistics from people who have not played in awhile and some that played last year. Note: You will need "Alto Desktop Simulation" 1.8.1.0 if you plan on playing this game on a Mac. Also, for the best and easiest experience, I suggest having a Desktop PC with at least 2GB of RAM and at least 2x
