How to set a transition on an image animation? Is it possible to apply a transition to the movement of an image? What I've tried is to apply a black background with black lines and a transition on the lines to get this result, but without success: Here is the code I'm using:

.img { margin-left: 0; background-image: url(""); background-repeat: no-repeat; transition: 4s linear black; transition-delay: 2s; } .img:hover { background-image: url(""); } .img:active { background-image: url(""); }
```
